Leonda Hudson Leads Scoring

Leonda Hudson, freshman at Roanoke College, has been given recognition in the Roanoke College Bulletin for Spring 1971. Under the topic "Roanoke Today", the article states: "Roanoke College is rapidly acquiring recognition for an outstanding basketball program, but this is true not only in the men's division.

"The Maroonettes had one of their best years in history and accomplished this with only one senior in the lineup.

"Leonda Hudson, a freshman, led the team in scoring with a 30-point per game average.

"It was supposed to be merely a rebuilding year for the Maroons' girls' field hockey team but they had bigger things in mind," continues the article.

"With a young team the girls finished the season with a very respectable 7-4-3 mark, and many of the women were mentioned on post-season honor teams."

Leonda was among nine first team members chosen for the Blue Ridge Association all-star team. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. V. L. Hudson, Evergreen.
